1

When selected for drug testing, a doping control officer or chaperone will notify you.

I MUST BE PRETTY GOOD IF THEY CHOSE ME.

2

You will be within sight of the DCO or chaperone the entire time until you reach the doping control station.

LET'S GET THIS DONE SO I CAN FINISH WATCHING MY FRIENDS.

3

Pick your own collection vessel in which you will provide your urine sample. Rinse your hands with water before opening the vessel.

I LIKE OPTIONS!

4

A same gender DCO or chaperone will observe you providing the sample. This is important for the integrity of the sample.

OK, IF IT'S FOR THE GOOD OF CLEAN SPORT.

5

Choose a sample collection kit. Your urine will be placed inside these containers.

THEY REALLY WALK YOU THROUGH EVERYTHING. I HAVE NOTHING TO WORRY ABOUT.

6

Pour your urine between the B Sample and A Sample bottles and seal them.

TIME TO POUR!

7

Place your sealed bottles back into the kit.

THERE GOES MY URINE, OFF TO THE LAB.

8

Tell the DCO about all of the medications or substances, like vitamins, that you are taking. The DCO will record this on the Doping Control Official Record.

GOTTA TELL THEM ALL MY MEDICATIONS.

9

You may be required to provide blood as part of the drug testing process. It's a very small amount.

WOWZY! THE NEEDLE FELT LIKE A LITTLE POKE. WHEW - IT WASN'T THAT BAD.

10

Review the information for accuracy and be proud that you did your part to help keep sport clean.

WOW - THAT WAS FAST.

Take pride in being part of history at the 2nd Summer Youth Olympic Games.

THEY ALL MADE ME FEEL SPECIAL BEING DRUG TESTED. THEY WALKED ME THROUGH EVERYTHING. I FEEL PROUD THAT I COMPETE CLEAN!

Check the status of your medication. You may need to apply for a Therapeutic Use Exemption (TUE) form.

I ALWAYS LOOK AT WWW.GLOBALDRO.COM TO CHECK THE STATUS OF MY MEDICATIONS BEFORE I USE THEM.
