Please provide us with a status report on the claim payment for the 6th consecutive Tour de France win by Lance Armstrong.

Look foward to hearing from you.
Thanks Kelly

This is the response we rec'd after sending an update earlier this week. Payment of the bonuses must be made within 30 days of the win. We are a week past that date WITHOUT any updates from SCA. Bob, there is going to be letters from attorneys soon if we can't give them an update.

Terry

Thank you so much for the update! I really appreciate all you are doing to collect this money. Would you please send the check you do have Fed Ex overnight to my office here in Austin to my attention. I will be looking for it. As far as the others go, please remind these companies that the contracts have payment terms...one of thirty days and one of ten days from day of claim submission. We are prepared to pursue this legally if we cannot obtain full payment on these policies by the end of the week. We just cannot accept this dragging out any longer. Please understand that as Lance's management it is our responsibility to him to collect this bonus money in a timely manner and enforce the contracts we have entered into. If you wouldn't mind please update me immediately as you have contact with the outstanding carriers.

Additionally, we are interested in discussing potential bonus coverage for several members of our team for next year. Hopefully we can do this as soon as we collect the 2004 money.

Thanks again for all your help,

Laura
